SOUTH DAKOTA (The Mount Rushmore State)

South Dakota is situated in the midwestern region of the United States. It became the 40th state in 1889 and is the 17th biggest. The south west is dominated by the Black Hills which are rich in minerals such as lead, copper, silver and gold. Mount Rushmore, with its huge carved heads of former presidents, Washington, Jefferson, Lincoln and Roosevelt, is a major tourist attraction.
